L'INVENTAIRE IMAGINAIRE

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITY TRAIL

Welcome to the Autrique House!

This trail will take you round the exhibition. It contains explanations and activities linked to what you will see here.

Answers can be found on the last page.

Enjoy your visit!

MOSCOW

In Russia, folklor, legends and other popular stories are often inspired from animals.

Can you see these animals in the exhibition? Are there any intruders?

It's yours to find out!

BRUSSELS

Here, the authors pictured three different stories, taking place in three different locations in Brussels: the Grand-Place, the Place Flagey, and the Place du Jeu de Balle.

Connect each picture to the photograph from which it was inspired.

HABANA

The authors shaped this story after the life of Matias Pérez, an aeronautic enthusiast who got lost in 1856 as he was flying his hot-air balloon.

Will you find the five differences?

ALGIER

Algier's historical district is called the Casbah. Its traditional architecture and craftsmanship still inspire a great number of artists today.

Would you please help this rider find its way back out of the Casbah district?

AN INTERNATIONAL PROJECT

Kronikas is a comic review that aims to gather the heritage and architecture of four different cities around the world, under the same scope. Each authors thus picture stories in relation to heritage.

Connect each flag to the corresponding country, and write down the name of its capital underneath!
